WID.W AND BARON SHE SENT TO JAIL, MAKE UP

Mrs. Russell and Von Motz. Reconciled and Marriage Talk Is Revived.

SHE WAS A BIT JEALOUS.

"Badly Advised," She Says, Too, As Well As Angry Over Mrs. Conard.

serenity of their friendship, "Baron" son Russell are reconciled, and there, are reports of their forthcoming marriage which neither will deny.

Tall, handsome and blonde, with a fine line of patter, Baron von Motz dended on New York a little more then a year ago with the proud distinction of having left , trail of fractured nine hearts from here to Berlin. Weil-dressed and fascinating in his manner it didn't take him long to get acquainted. Last spring it was unofficially whispered that he was to marry Mrs. Russell, widow of Capt. Marcus Dennison Russell, who, as a member of Roosevelt's Rough Riders, gave up his a handsome woman and the "Baron" was ner devoted admirer. It was reported that they would be married this

Not until the Baron made his appear beautiful Spanish widow, did it become known that no had once more experienced a change of heart. Mrs. Conard had expensive apartments in the Waldorf-Astoria and to reporters who interviewed her she let it be wn that she was about to become Raroness. Then came the arrest of the Baron on complaint of Mrs. Rus his former nancee, who charged sell, his former flancee, who charged him with having appropriated to fits own the $250, which she said he raised on a $500 stickp,n belonging to her. In addition to the climinal charge, Mrs. Russell began a ovil action against him. Baror, you Motz was led away from the gay night life of Longacre (Square to Ludiow Street Jail. He remained in jail for days and days and finally both cases were adjusted to the satisfaction of Mrs. Russell Since this release he has lived in comparative retirement. Stories that he had become reconciled with Mrs. Russell were yellied a ferral night as 30 when the two were seen together at a Broadway resignant. You find a ferral night were seen together at a Broadway resignant. We were seen together at a Broadway resignant, while the last of the find quotations are well as a fine fellow. Like many another woman I was badly advised and my timpulsive action caused him great embarrament. But we are better friends than such as a fine fellow.
